2014 SEASON PREVIEW

By The Numbers

Defensive lineman Andre Monroe leads the nation among returning FBS players averaging 0.66 sacks per game.

Through two seasons, wide receiver Stefon Diggs is averaging 156.0 all-purpose yards per game, an average that ranks second nationally among returning FBS players.

Quarterback C.J. Brown holds five of the top-10 rushing performances by a quarterback in school history including a school-record 162-yard performance against Clemson on Oct. 15, 2011.

14.05

Maryland's passing attack averaged 14.05 yards per completion in 2013. It marked the highest average by a Terrapin team since 2003 (15.0 ypc) and ranked 16th nationally.

17

Last season, sophomore William Likely made an immediate impact on special teams ranking as one of the most dangerous punt returners in the country. Likely ranked 17th nationally averaging 12.8 yards per return.

17

Maryland was a disciplined team in 2013. The Terps were only penalized 36.69 yards per game, which ranked as the 17th-lowest average in the nation.

31

Kicker Brad Craddock has converted 31 career field goals, which ranks ninth all-time in school history, and has converted 75.6 percent of his career attempts (31-of-41), which ranks second in program history.

34.2%

Maryland's defense held its opponents to a 34.2 percent success rate (69-of-202) on third downs in 2013. That average was the 21st lowest in the country.

37

The Terps racked up 37 sacks a season ago, a total which ranked 18th in the nation, and was the most by a Maryland defense since totaling 38 in 2002. Maryland returns 67.6 percent (25-of-37) of its sacks from last season.

80.7%

Maryland returns 80.7 percent of its total tackles from last season (1,021 tkls in 2013). That percentage ranks 13th nationally among FBS schools.

97.5%

Maryland ranks first nationally amongst FBS schools returning 97.5 percent of its total offensive yards from 2013 (5,160 yards).

3,231

Last season, Maryland eclipsed the 3,000-yard passing mark for the first time since 1994 (3,037). Its mark of 3,231 yards passing is the third-highest total in school history and the most since 1993 (3,823).

Starters Returning (9)

QB C.J. Brown Gr.-2V 6-3, 218

• Made 11 starts at QB in 2013. Became the first Terp to pass for 2,000 or more yards and rush for 500 or more yards in a single season.

OL Sal Conaboy Sr.-3V 6-3, 295

• Has appeared in 27 career games and started all 13 at center in 2013. Helped Maryland pass for over 3,000 yards for the first time since 1994.

WR Stefon Diggs Jr.-2V 6-0, 190

• Has appeared in 18 career games with 14 starts. Started the first seven games of 2013 before suffering a season-ending injury. Was an honorable mention All-ACC selection in 2013.

OL Ryan Doyle Jr.-1V 6-4, 300

• Has appeared in 14 career games and started all 13 contests in 2013. Started the first nine games at right tackle before moving to left tackle for the final four games.

OL Michael Dunn So.-1V 6-5, 300

• Made nine starts at right guard before moving to right tackle for the final four games of the 2013 season.

WR Nigel King Jr.-2V 6-3, 210

• Has appeared in 24 career games with 14 starts. Made 11 starts a season ago and caught four touchdown passes.

WR Deon Long Sr.-1V 6-0, 185

• Started the first seven games of 2013 before suffering a season-ending injury. Averaged 15.3 yards per catch.

RB Brandon Ross Jr.-2V 5-10, 210

• Has appeared in 18 career games with 17 career starts, 12 coming last season. Led the team in rushing with 776 yards in 2013.

OL Andrew Zeller Jr.-2V 6-4, 300

• Started the final four games of 2013 at right guard and appeared in all 13. Has appeared in 22 career games.

Starters Lost (2)

OL De'OnTe Arnett 3V 6-4, 290

• Appeared in 30 career games and spent the 2010 season along the defensive line.

TE Dave Stinebaugh 3V 6-3, 250

• Appeared in 28 career games with 11 starts. Finished with 246 career receiving yards and three touchdowns.

POSITION-BY-POSITION NOTES

QUARTERBACKS

• The quarterback position serves as one of the deepest and most experienced units on the roster as Maryland enters the 2014 season. Returning starter C.J. Brown (16), and Caleb Rowe (3) and Perry Hills (7) have combined to start 26 games dating back to the 2011 season.

• Brown returns under center for his final year in College Park with 3,084 yards passing and 1,162 yards rushing for his career. Last season, Brown became the first Maryland quarterback to throw for 2,000 or more yards (2,242) and rush for 500 or more yards (576) in a single season. His 576 yards rushing set a Maryland single-season record for a QB.

• For his career, Brown has seven 100-yard rushing games, which is the second-highest active total in the Big Ten behind Ohio State's Braxton Miller (14), and holds five of Maryland's top -10 rushing performances for a quarterback in school history.

• Rowe and Hills will serve as backups to begin the season. Rowe has appeared in nine games with three starts over the last two seasons. In that time, the strong-armed junior has passed for 1,279 yards and seven touchdowns. Rowe had a career day against Virginia in one of his two starts last season, passing for a career-best 332 yards in a 27-26 Maryland win. Hills will be back in the mix in 2014 after serving a redshirt season in 2013. The redshirt sophomore started seven games as a freshman in 2012 before his season was cut short due to injury.

• Redshirt freshman Shane Cockerille and signee Will Ulmer will compete for a spot on the two-deep. Cockerille, an all-state performer in high school at Gilman School, is a dual-threat option, while Ulmer passed for over 1,100 yards and rushed for over 1,300 yards at St. John's College High School last season earning a spot on the Under Armour All-American team.

RUNNING BACKS

• Including quarterback C.J. Brown, Maryland returns its top-5 rushers and 458 of its 462 carries from last season with Brandon Ross leading the group. The junior from Newark, Del., carried the ball a team-high 166 times for 776 yards and four scores in 2013. Ross, who is second on the team with four 100-yard career rushing performances, closed the season with a strong performance against Marshall in the Military Bowl rushing for 116 yards.

• Junior Albert Reid joins Ross as one of the primary options in the Terrapin backfield. A strong downhill runner, Reid averaged 4.2 yards per carry a season ago and has rushed for 386 yards and two touchdowns in two seasons.

• Jacquille Veii served as the change of pace back in 2013. The shifty sophomore was fourth on the team in carries (39) and rushed for 146 yards in 11 games. Joining Veii in the mix at running back will be special teams stalwart Joe Riddle along with walk-ons Tehuti Miles and Zac Morton. Miles moved to running back in the spring after playing wide receiver last season.

• The return of Wes Brown to the Maryland backfield will add significant depth to the position. Brown missed the 2013 season after leading the team in carries (90) and finishing second on the team in rushing (382) in 2012.

• The fullback position returns a wealth of experience with 2013 starter Kenneth Goins, who appeared in all 13 games last season, and senior Tyler Cierski back. Cierski missed most of last season due to injury, but has appeared in 28 career games. Goins was not strictly utilized as a run blocker a year ago and rushed for 48 yards with four receptions for 49 yards and a touchdown. Goins and Cierski will be joined by Andrew Stefanelli, who appeared primarily on special teams last season.

WIDE RECEIVERS

• Maryland may boast one of the deepest and most experienced receiving corps in the nation with nine players returning who caught a pass a season ago. In terms of receptions, Maryland returns its top-six pass catchers and will welcome back Stefon Diggs and Deon Long, who missed the final six games of 2013 due to injury.

• After a record-breaking freshman campaign, Diggs' sophomore season was cut short at Wake Forest when he suffered a leg injury. Through seven games, Diggs averaged 17.3 yards per reception, which ranked in the top-30 nationally. He enters his junior season with 1,435 yards receiving for his career, which ranks 12th all-time at Maryland, on 88 receptions (16.3 ypc). A threat anytime the ball is in his hands, he also ranks second in the nation among returning FBS players averaging 156.0 career all-purpose yards per game.

• Also returning from an injury-shortened season in 2013, Long provides another playmaking threat for quarterback C.J. Brown and the offense. Long arrived in College Park after an All-American campaign at Iowa Western in 2012 where he led the country in receptions (100), an NJCAA record, receiving yards (1,625) and touchdowns (25). Through seven games last season, Long hauled in 32 receptions for 489 yards (15.3 ypc) and one touchdown. The senior debuted in a big way last fall with nine catches for 110 yards and a touchdown against FIU in the season opener.

- After season-ending injuries to Diggs and Long, junior Levern Jacobs emerged as Maryland's top target in 2013. Jacobs led the team in receptions (47) and yards (640) with three touchdowns. Jacobs recorded two 100-yard receiving efforts over the final five games of the season. The Temple Hills, Md., native set career highs in receptions (8) and yards (158) against Clemson and closed the season with a seven-catch, 100-yard performance against Marshall in the Military Bowl.

- Junior Nigel King and sophomore Amba Etta-Tawo also emerged after Diggs and Long went down. King totaled at least 60 yards receiving in four of the last six games, while Etta-Tawo, a 6-foot-1 target, finished over 100 yards receiving in two of the final five games including a six reception, 109-yard day against Syracuse. King finished the season with 450 yards receiving on 33 receptions and led the team in receiving touchdowns (4). Etta-Tawo had 31 catches for 500 yards (16.1 ypc) and two scores.

- After missing the 2013 season, Marcus Leak has rejoined the Terps and potentially could be an instant impact player. Leak's sophomore campaign was cut short in 2012 after suffering an injury. He still managed to finish second on the team with 23 receptions and 393 yards receiving (17.1 ypc) and two touchdowns.

- Daniel Adams and Malcolm Culmer will also be competing for playing time at wide out. Adams appeared in four games last season, while Culmer caught five passes for 59 yards in 12 appearances. They will be joined by redshirt freshman Taivon Jacobs, Levern's younger brother, sophomore DeAndre Lane, and signee Juwann Winfree.

TIGHT ENDS

- With the departure of veterans Matt Furstenburg in 2012 and Dave Stinebaugh in 2013, the tight end position is the most inexperienced unit on offense with five underclassmen and an incoming freshman competing for the starting job. The unit has combined for 24 appearances and no receptions.

- The early front runners for the starting nod appear to be sophomores P.J. Gallo and Andrew Isaacs. Gallo appeared in all 13 games last season on special teams, while Isaacs appeared in 11.

- Converted linebacker Derrick Hayward makes the move to tight end after redshirting last season as a freshman. He will be joined by sophomore Brian McMahon, redshirt freshman Eric Roca and signee Andrew Gray, an All-Ohio selection at Chardon High School, on the depth chart.

OFFENSIVE LINE

- Maryland returns four of its five starters along the offensive line from 2013. The group has combined for 76 career appearances and helped Maryland pass for over 3,000 yards last season for the first time since 1994.

- Senior center Sal Conaboy is the veteran among the group having appeared in 27 career games with 22 starts, the most on the offensive side of the ball. Conaboy, a Rimington Trophy Watch List member, started all 13 games at center last season.

- At the tackles, the Terps return junior Ryan Doyle and sophomore Michael Dunn. Doyle began the 2013 season at right tackle and spent the first nine games there before moving to the left side of the line for the final four games. Following Doyle's move to left tackle, Dunn slid into the vacated right tackle position after playing the first nine games at right guard.

- Junior Andrew Zeller should assume the starting spot at right guard after replacing Dunn for the final four games of the season. Zeller appeared in all 13 games last season either along the o-line or on special teams.

- The biggest position battle along the offensive line should come at left guard to replace De'Onte Arnett, who appeared in 30 career games. Senior Silvano Altamirano, who transferred from San Diego Mesa College prior to the 2013 season, and junior Evan Mulrooney, who has moved over from center, will compete for the starting nod along with redshirt freshman Mike Minter.

- Senior Jake Wheeler provides experienced depth at the tackle positions having appeared in 24 career games. Sophomore Maurice Shelton and redshirt freshman JuJuan Dulaney, who missed the season due to injury, are expected to compete for time behind Zeller. Junior Stephen Grommer and redshirt freshman Joe Marchese, who moved from long snapper this spring, provide depth behind Conaboy.

- Four talented freshmen will push for playing time as well. Under Armour All-Americans Damian Prince and Derwin Gray will compete for playing time at tackle or guard, while all-state selections Sean Christie and Brendan Moore will be in the mix along with Banks Agarwa.

DEFENSIVE LINE

- Along the defensive line, Maryland returns all three of its starters along with an experienced veteran in Keith Bowers. The quartet has appeared in a combined 75 games with 64 starts.

- Senior Andre Monroe anchors one end and is Maryland's active leader in sacks. The product from Upper Marlboro, Md., has 14.5 career sacks after totaling a team-best 9.5 last season, which tied for 21st nationally. Monroe enters the season leading the FBS in sacks per game (0.66) among active players. In addition to his 9.5 sacks, Monroe racked up a team-high 17 tackles for loss, tied for the 22nd-highest total nationally.

Defensive Starters Returning/Lost

Starters Returning (9)

DB Sean Davis Jr.-2V 6-1, 200

- Leading tackler on the team a season ago (102). Ranked ninth in the ACC averaging 7.8 tackles per game.

LB Cole Farrand Sr.-3V 6-3, 245

- An honorable mention All-ACC selection. Was second on the team in tackles (84) last season and averaged 7.6 per game, 11th best in the ACC.

LB L.A. Goree Sr.-3V 6-2, 245

- Has 31 career appearances and was the third-leading tackler last season (75).

DL Quinton Jefferson Jr.-2V 6-3, 285

- Made 13 starts last season and had 47 tackles with 7.5 TFL and 3.0 sacks.

DB Jeremiah Johnson Sr.-2V 5-11, 193

- Missed most of last season due to injury. Appeared in only two games.

DL Darius Kilgo Sr.-2V 6-3, 310

- Appeared in 13 games with 12 starts and totaled 37 tackles, 6.5 TFL and 2.0 sacks.

DL Andre Monroe Sr.-2V 5-11, 282

- Has 22 career appearances. Led the team in sacks (9.5) and TFL (17.0) last season. Tied for sixth in the ACC in sacks.

Starters Lost (2)

DB Dexter McDougale 4V 5-10, 195

- Missed the last 10 games of 2013 with a shoulder injury. Selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the New York Jets.

LB Marcus Whitfield 3V 6-3, 250

- An honorable mention All-ACC selection. Ranked second on the team with 9.0 sacks.

Special Teams Starters Returning/Lost...

Starters Returning (4)

PK Brad Craddock Jr.-2V 6-0, 185

- Made 21 field goals last season, third most in school history. Averaged 1.62 field goals per game, which led the ACC.

KR/PR William Likely So.-1V 5-7, 175

- Averaged 26.0 yards per kick return, which ranked third in the ACC, and averaged 12.8 yards per punt return, fourth best in the conference.

P Nathan Renfro Jr.-2V 6-1, 205

- Averaged 40.8 yards per punt in 2013. Pinned 18 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line and seven punts inside the 10-yard line.

Starters Lost (1)

LS Greg Parcher 2V 6-3, 205

- Served as the starting long snapper for two seasons. Appeared in 22 games. Received the team's unsung hero award at the team banquet.

- Senior Darius Kilgo has started 23 of Maryland's last 25 games along the interior of the defensive line. Kilgo totaled 37 tackles with a career-best 6.5 TFL last season. He also posted two sacks and recovered one fumble.

- Opposite of Monroe, junior Quinton Jefferson started all 13 games last season after appearing in nine the year before. Jefferson was the top tackler along the defensive line in 2013 totaling 47 tackles including 7.5 TFL with three sacks.

- Bowers has the most experience along the line having appeared in 34 career games. Bowers recorded 32 tackles in 13 games last season to raise his career total to 79.

- Among the defensive linemen competing for playing time with Jefferson and Monroe, sophomore Roman Braglio is the only player with experience having played in 10 games last season. Two redshirt freshmen in Malik Jones and Kingsley Opara, along with a trio of sophomores in Ruben Franco, Ty Tucker and Azu- buike Ukandu will battle for position on the two-deep. Senior Spencer Myers joined the team in the summer and will compete for a spot on the end, while continuing to wrestle for the Terps.

- Two Pennsylvania products in true freshmen, Brett Kulka and David Shaw, join the team this fall and will compete for playing time.

LINEBACKERS

- The Terps return three of their top four tacklers from a year ago in a position which calls for physical, athletic players. Maryland will look to replace Marcus Whitfield, who racked up nine sacks a season ago.

- Honorable mention All-ACC performer senior Cole Farrand occupies one of the two inside linebacker spots. Farrand totaled a career-best 84 tackles, which ranked second on the team, along with 4.5 TFL. Of Farrand's 84 tackles, 23 came against Clemson to tie a national single-game high.

- Senior L.A. Goree is slotted next to Farrand and has appeared in 32 career games. Goree had the third-most tackles on the team last season (75), a career best. Goree totaled a career-high 16 tackles against Virginia a year ago including seven solo stops.

- On the outside, senior Matt Robinson adjusted well to his first season at the position after moving from safety. Robinson was fourth on the team in tackles (73) and third on the team in tackles for loss (10.0). A player with good sideline-to-sideline speed, Robinson broke up four passes, tied for the second most on the team.

- To replace Whitfield, Maryland will most likely look to Yannik Cudjoe-Virgil. The Butkus Award Watch List member emerged early in the season before suffering a season-ending injury against Virginia. In the first six games, Cudjoe-Virgil totaled 18 tackles, 3.5 TFL and three sacks. Yannick Ngakoue will also be vying for playing time after he finished with 10 tackles, 4.5 of which were for a loss and included two sacks along with an interception. Clarence Murphy, who appeared in five games a season ago in a limited role, will also be competing for a spot along with redshirt freshman Chandler Burkett.

- Behind Robinson, senior Alex Twine, who proved to be a valuable special teams performer last season, should see playing time. Twine totaled a career-best 49 tackles and has appeared in 34 career games. Sophomore Cavon Walker and junior Avery Thompson will join the fray as well. Walker appeared in all 13 games last year and totaled nine tackles. Thompson appeared in 13 games mostly on special teams.

- Redshirt freshmen Jalen Brooks and Jermaine Carter, Jr., along with sophomore Brock Dean are in the mix at inside linebacker along with freshman walk-on Matt Gillespie.

- Maryland added three linebackers in the class of 2014, who should provide immediate depth. U.S. Army All-American Jesse Aniebonam joins the team along with all-state performers Tyler Burke and Nnamdi Egbuaba.

SECONDARY

- Maryland returns a strong core of playmakers in the secondary with two returning safeties, a second-year corner who emerged in his freshman season, and a talented senior veteran returning from injury.

- At safety, the duo of Sean Davis and Anthony Nixon have played together in 23 of Maryland's 25 games over the last two seasons. After recording 12 tackles as a freshman in 2012, Davis posted a team-best 102 tackles as a sophomore and finished with two interceptions and broke up three passes. Over the final nine games, Davis recorded nine or more tackles in eight contests. Nixon also turned in a career year despite missing two games due to injury. The Pittsburgh native finished sixth on the team with a career-high 60 tackles including 3.0 TFL.

- Providing valuable experience and depth, senior A.J. Hendy has appeared in 30 career games and has played an important role in the secondary and on special teams. Last season, Hendy totaled 32 tackles and an interception, which was returned for a touchdown, the second of his career. A knack for making plays, Hendy has also recovered three career fumbles. The Bowie, Md., native will compete for time with Davis and senior Rashid Conteh, and redshirt freshmen Elvis Dannah and J.T. Ventura.

- Challenging Nixon, junior Zach Dancel appeared in 12 games primarily on special teams and totaled 11 tackles in 2013. He will be joined on the depth chart by senior and JUCO transfer Denzel Conyers and redshirt freshman Milan Collins.

- Sophomore William Likely enters the 2014 season looking to build off an impressive freshman campaign. Likely led all cornerbacks and ranked fifth on the team in tackles (70). In addition, Likely led the team with seven passes defended. Likely will be backed by junior Undray Clark, who played in two games last season.

- Senior Jeremiah Johnson appeared in only two games a season ago before suffering a season-ending injury sidelined him after starting all 12 games in 2012. Johnson should be full strength for summer camp and be in position to return to his 2012 form.

- Alvin Hill and Jarrett Ross should compete for playing time with Johnson. Hill appeared in 12 games last season and totaled 24 tackles with two passes broken up, while Ross saw action in 12 games last season. Walk-on Michael Washington will be competing for a spot as well.

- Three defensive backs joined the Terps in the 2014 recruiting class. Maryland will welcome local products Antwaine Carter, Daniel Ezeagwu and Josh Woods.

SPECIALISTS

- Maryland's special teams units emerged as one of the better groups in the country last season. The Terps ranked 34th nationally in punt returns (10.74 ypr) and punt return defense (5.68 ypr), and ranked 39th nationally in kick returns (22.84 ypr) and kick return defense

Total Sacks Per Game - NCAA FBS Active Players

No.	Name, Yr., Pos. (School)	Sacks Per Game
1.	Andre Monroe, Sr., DL (Maryland)	0.66
2.	Devonte Fields, So., DL (TCU)	0.63
	Ejiro Ederaine, Jr., LB (Fresno St.)	0.63
4.	Cory James, So., LB (Colorado St.)	0.62
5.	Martin Ifedi, Sr., Jr. (Memphis)	0.56

(20.16 ypr). Luckily for Maryland, it returns its kicker, punter and primary return specialist.

- Sophomore William Likely became the biggest return threat on the team and excelled in the role. Likely averaged 12.8 yards per punt return, which ranked 17th nationally, and 26.0 yards per kick return, which ranked 23rd nationally. His 729 kickoff return yards last season was the fourth-highest single-season total in school history.

- Junior kicker Brad Craddock is entering his third season as Maryland's primary kicker. Craddock enjoyed a career year in 2013. A Lou Groza Watch List member, Craddock converted 21-of-25 field goals (84.0%), which was the 28th-best conversion rate in the country. His 1.62 field goal per game average tied for the eighth-highest nationally.

- At punter, junior Nathan Renfro will assume the duties for a third year in a row. Last season, Renfro averaged a career-high 40.8 yards per punt and pinned 18 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line and seven inside the 10-yard line. For his career, Renfro is averaging 40.2 yards per punt, tied for eighth highest all-time at Maryland.

- Sophomore Christian Carpenter should assume long snapping duties with the departure of Greg Parcher. Carpenter subbed for Parcher during the final three games of the season after Parcher was sidelined with an injury. Michael Tart is expected to handle the holding duties once again after appearing in 13 games last season.

2014 Leadership Council

- Head coach Randy Edsall and the Maryland coaching staff have selected the Leadership Council for the 2014 season. Eleven players were selected to the council by the coaches representing 10 position groups based upon performance on the field, in the film room and overall leadership ability. The council is: graduate C.J. Brown (quarterback), senior Sal Conaboy (offensive line), junior Brad Craddock (kicker), senior Yannik Cudjoe-Virgil (outside linebacker), sophomore P.J. Gallo (tight end), senior Cole Farrand (inside linebacker), senior Jeremiah Johnson (defensive back), senior Deon Long (wide receiver), senior Andre Monroe (defensive line), junior Albert Reid (running back) and senior Matt Robinson (outside linebacker).

Randy Edsall

Head Coach

Syracuse '80 • Fourth Year at Maryland

Randy Edsall enters his fourth season as head football coach at the University of Maryland, leading a program that continues to make great strides both on and off the field.

Edsall was named the 34th coach in Maryland football history in January 2011. Since taking over, Edsall and his staff have placed a strong emphasis on recruiting the local Maryland/Washington, D.C. market, which is heavily recruited by schools across the nation and is considered a football hotbed. The result of this focus was the signing of 63 athletes, 33 from the area, since 2012. Edsall and his staff have recruited classes ranked in the top 35 nationally by Rivals.com in two of the last three years, including the 31st overall in 2013.

"Randy Edsall is an excellent football coach. He teaches and believes in the physical nature of the game. He is a great recruiter and his success at Connecticut earned his program compliments and recognition from college football's finest coaches. Randy is a very positive thinking person, and perhaps his greatest attribute is his persistence. He will persevere and he will win at Maryland and he will do it the right way!"
- Tom Coughlin, NY Giants head coach

In addition, under Edsall's command the football program's Athletic Progress Rate (APR) has reached all-time highs. The football team's APR, which measures eligibility and retention, increased its multi-year score from 922 (2009-2010) to 950 (2012-2013) and its single-year score from 905 to 977. Both of which are program bests since the APR's inception in 2003.

The Maryland program continued its ascent in 2013 totaling seven victories and earning its first bowl appearance since 2010 (2013 Military Bowl). Offensively, the Terps passed for over 3,000 yards for only the fourth time in program history and the first time since 1994. Additionally, Maryland totaled over 500 yards of offense in its first three games, the first time that has happened since 1983.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Terps attacked opposing offenses and tied for third in the ACC in sacks (37) and averaged 2.85 sacks per game, tied for the 18th most in the nation. The unit also excelled on third down holding opponents to a 34.2 conversion rate, which was the 21st-best mark nationally.

Prior to coming to College Park, Edsall, a native of nearby Glen Rock, Pa, spent 12 seasons coaching the University of Connecticut Huskies where he took the program from FCS (formerly I-AA) to five bowl games, including a BCS bowl. The 2010 Big East Coach of the Year led the Huskies to a 33-19 record over his last four seasons there, including two bowl victories with his leadership resulting in UConn being the first program ever to go from FBS newcomer to BCS bowl participant in just seven seasons.

Edsall departed UConn as the school's all-time leader in career wins (74) and most games coached (144). He was a two-time recipient of the prestigious Bowl Championship Division Head Coach of the Year in New England by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston (2007, 2010).

During his tenure at UConn, the Huskies finished in the top-20 nationally for total offense twice (2003, 2004) and total defense three times (2002, 2005, 2008). Under Edsall's guidance Connecticut defeated teams from the ACC, Big Ten, Big East, Big 12, Conference USA and the SEC.

In 2007, as Edsall continued to grow the program to prominence, the Huskies earned their first-ever national rankings peaking at No. 13 in the BCS standings in November. That year, they became just the second Big East team ever to go 7-0 at home and defeat three teams at home that were ranked in the top-10 during the season.

Off the field, just as he is doing at Maryland, Edsall's teams were strong in the classroom as well. In 2007, 2008 and 2009, UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate. In 2003, UConn was the only public Division I-A school to graduate at least 90 percent of its football players and in 2005, it was one of only eight schools to both graduate 70 percent and win a bowl game.

When Edsall was named the head coach at Connecticut on December 21, 1998 he brought 19 years of coaching experience with him. He earned the job at Connecticut after a year as the defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech where the 14th-ranked Yellow Jackets went 9-2.

Prior to his season at Georgia Tech, Edsall spent three seasons under two-time Super Bowl Champion coach Tom Coughlin as the secondary coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. During his time in Jacksonville, the expansion Jaguars reached the playoffs twice, including a berth in the 1996 AFC Championship Game.

Edsall began his coaching career in 1980 at his alma mater, Syracuse University. The former quarterback at Syracuse started as a graduate assistant (1980-82) before joining the staff in 1983 overseeing the running backs under head coach Dick MacPherson. Edsall oversaw the running backs for three years (1983-84 and 1986) and oversaw the tight ends in 1985 before making the switch to defense.

He coached the Syracuse defensive backs from 1987-90 and during that time the Orangemen were ranked among the Division I-A leaders in pass defense. After the 1990 season, Tom Coughlin, then coach of Boston College, hired Edsall to coach the defensive backs at BC.

Edsall was a three-year letter winner in football, basketball and baseball at Susquehannock High School (Pa.) and was an all-state selection in all three sports as a senior, which led to induction into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

At Syracuse, he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1980 and a master's degree in health and physical education in 1982.

Edsall and his wife, Eileen met at Syracuse University where she was a basketball and volleyball standout who was later inducted into the Syracuse University Hall of Fame. They have a daughter, Alexi and a son, Corey.

Mike Locksley

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Towson '92 • Ninth Year at Maryland

Mike Locksley returns for his third season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and his ninth overall season at Maryland.

A native of Washington, D.C., Locksley returned home to rejoin the Terrapins after the 2011 season. He was an assistant coach at Maryland for six seasons (1997-2002).

Last season, Locksley guided an offense that eclipsed 5,000 yards (5,160) for only the fourth time in program history and the first time since 2003. The passing game excelled totaling 3,231 yards, the third-highest total in school history.

Under center, Locksley helped quarterback C.J. Brown become the first Maryland signal-caller to throw for over 2,000 yards (2,242) and rush for over 500 yards (576) in a single-season despite missing two of the team's top wide receivers in Stefon Diggs and Deon Long, who missed the final six games of the 2013 season due to injury.

Utilizing the depth at wide receiver, Locksley's unit had five players with 30 or more receptions led by Lavern Jacobs with 47 catches for 640 yards (13.6 ypc). The unit averaged 14.05 yards per catch, which tied for the 15th-highest average nationally.

In 2012, his first season back in College Park, Locksley coached five different quarterbacks, including three true freshmen and a converted linebacker after an unprecedented string of injuries hit the position.

Despite the constant shuffling at quarterback, Locksley found a way to get the ball in his playmakers' hands. Stefon Diggs led the team with 54 receptions for 848 yards (15.7 ypc), the most ever by a Maryland freshman. Diggs also caught six touchdowns and was named ACC Rookie of the Week three times.

Locksley's offense also featured a strong running attack with four different backs earning a start. Redshirt freshman Brandon Ross set career highs, rushing for at least 100 yards in two of the final three games, including 141 yards in the final contest at North Carolina.

A veteran coach with over 20 years of experience, Locksley previously spent four seasons (2005-08) as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach for the University of Illinois and two-plus years (2009-2011) as head coach at the University of New Mexico.

He possesses a well-rounded coaching resume, having tutored every offensive or defensive position except offensive line.

Locksley is also known for strong recruiting skills. He was listed as a top-25 recruiter in the nation three different times (2003, 2005, 2006) and was a finalist for 2007 recruiter of the year by Rivals.com. He also engineered top-10 recruiting classes during each of his two seasons (2003-04) as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida.

Locksley's first stint as an offensive coordinator was quite a success. He took over an Illinois offense which was ranked No. 86 nationally in total offense (338.1 yards per game) and gradually improved it to a top-20 unit.

The Illini went from No. 72 nationally in total offense (354.6 ypg) in 2005 to No. 19 (438.3 ypg) in 2008. They led the Big Ten in rushing in 2006 (188.8 ypg) and 2007 (256.7 ypg), and in passing (269.3 ypg) in 2008. The rushing attack was twice ranked in the top-10 nationally (No. 10 in 2006; No. 5 in 2007).

Under Locksley's tutelage, quarterback Juice Williams passed for more than 6,000 yards and rushed for over 2,000 in his three years under Locksley and was a 2008 All-Big Ten choice. Williams set school records for rushing yards by a quarterback and single-season total offense. Williams led the Big Ten in passing (3,173 yards) and total offense (3,892 yards) in 2008 and was third in passing efficiency (136.15 rating).

Wide receiver Arrelious Benn was a first team all-conference pick as a sophomore in 2008 after leading the league in receiving yards (1,055). He went on to become a second-round pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 2010 NFL Draft.

The 2007 Illinois offense became just the third unit in school history to surpass the 5,000-yard mark and first to top 3,000 rushing yards. Led by Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year Rashard Mendenhall, the Illini led the league in rushing for the second straight year and finished fifth nationally at 256.7 yards a game.

Mendenhall, who averaged 129 rushing yards, was a first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2008 NFL Draft.

While at Illinois, Locksley helped develop running back Mikel Leshoure, who was taken in the second round (57th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions. He also mentored offensive linemen Jon Asamoah and Jeff Allen, who were both drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs. Asamoah was selected in the third round (68th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft, and Allen was taken in the second round (44th overall) in 2012.

Illinois played USC in the 2008 Rose Bowl and finished the season ranked 18th in the nation in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches' poll and 20th by the Associated Press following a 9-4 season.

In 2006, Locksley led an Illinois offense that paced the Big Ten and ranked 10th in the nation in rushing, averaging 188.8 yards. He tutored versatile running back Pierre Thomas, a two-time honorable mention all-league pick, who wrapped up his career as the No. 6 all-time rusher at Illinois and has gone on to star with the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to his arrival at Illinois, Locksley worked two seasons for head coach Ron Zook at Florida, serving as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator. Both of those seasons ended with bowl-game appearances.

In 2004, Gators' running back Ciatrick Fason led the SEC and ranked 19th in the NCAA in rushing (105.6 yards a game) en route to second-team all-league honors.

That season, Florida finished first in the SEC in both passing yards (271 per game) and total offense (426.9 ypg) and was second in scoring (31.8 points per game).

The year prior, three Gator rushers logged more than 500 rushing yards and each averaged at least 5.5 yards per carry.

Locksley had success both recruiting and grooming players in his first stint in College Park. He oversaw the running backs during his entire tenure, including the final five as recruiting coordinator.

Three different running backs - Chris Downs, Bruce Perry and LaMont Jordan - gained more than 1,000 yards and were named first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference.

Jordan spearheaded a 1999 rushing attack that led the ACC (234.1 ypg) and ranked 12th in the nation. Jordan was the runner-up for 1997 ACC Rookie of the Year and finished as a Doak Walker semifinalist. He went to be selected in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft and totaled more than 3,700 yards for four teams in a nine-year professional career.

Perry was the 2001 ACC Offensive Player of the Year, a first for a Maryland running back, and the first sophomore to win the award. Both Perry and Jordan earned All-America honors under Locksley's watch.

Locksley played safety at Towson University, where he was the team's defensive MVP as a senior in 1991. He finished his career ranked 19th on the school's all-time tackles list and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing.

He got his coaching career started the following year at Towson, overseeing the defensive backs and special teams unit. He went on to coach at the U.S. Naval Prep School (1993-94), Pacific (1995) and Army (1996), where he helped the Black Knights reach the 1996 Independence Bowl.

Brian Stewart

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs
Northern Arizona '95 • Third Year at Maryland

Brian Stewart is in his third season as Maryland's defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

In 2013, Stewart led an aggressive Terrapin defense that became one of the most dominant pass rushing teams in the country. The unit finished the season with 37 sacks, the highest Maryland single-season total since the 2002 team racked up 38. The Terps' 37 sacks tied for third in the ACC and tied for 18th nationally.

Under Stewart's leadership, defensive lineman Andre Monroe and linebacker Marcus Whitfield became two of the top pass rushers in the conference. Monroe finished with 9.5 sacks, while Whitfield totaled 9.0, which tied for sixth and ranked eighth in the ACC, respectively. Monroe and Whitfield also ranked highly in tackles for loss totaling 17.0 and 15.5, respectively, both ranking in the top-10 in the conference.

Stewart's defensive unit received contributions across the board as five players received ACC weekly honors during the season: L.A. Goree (Linebacker of the Week, Oct. 14), A.J. Hendy (Defensive Back of the Week, Sept. 23), William Likely (Rookie of the Week, Nov. 18), Dexter McDougle (Defensive Back of the Week, Sept. 16), Matt Robinson (Linebacker of the Week, Dec. 2) and Whitfield (Linebacker of the Week, Sept. 16). In addition, Whitfield and linebacker Cole Farrand took home honorable mention All-ACC honors at the end of the season.

In the secondary, Stewart oversaw the emergence of the freshman defensive back Likely, who also was a standout special teams performer. Likely led the team in pass breakups (6) and ranked fifth in tackles (70) with 51 of them being solo, the second-highest total on the team. He also finished the season with 4.5 tackles for loss and one interception.

The defense was not without its injuries in 2013 notably to starting defensive back Dexter McDougle. Despite missing the majority of the season, McDougle was selected by the New York Jets in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

In his first season in College Park, Stewart oversaw a remarkable turnaround of the defense. His unit finished the 2012 season ranked second in the ACC and 21st in the nation in total defense (336.8 ypg), second in the ACC and 26th nationally against the run (129.3 ypg) and third in the ACC and 32nd nationally in pass defense (207.5 ypg). The Terrapins also held five of their opponents under 100 rushing yards, a feat that only happened once in 2011.

A former NFL defensive coordinator, Stewart came to Maryland after a two-year stint at the University of Houston, who ended 2011 with a 13-1 record and a No. 14 ranking in the final USA Today poll.

Stewart oversaw a Cougars defense which was one of the best in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2011, ranking in the top 15 in five categories: red-zone scoring (second - 67 percent), interceptions (t-third - 21), tackles for loss (sixth - 7.7 per game), turnovers gained (t-10th - 31) and opponent passing efficiency (12th - 111.75 rating).

After taking hold of Stewart's aggressive 3-4 scheme, Houston also improved from 96th nationally in scoring defense (32.2 points per game) in 2010 to 35th (22.4) in 2011.

Stewart has a history of grooming players and a pair of senior linebackers flourished in his defense.

Marcus McGraw totaled 141 stops in 2011 to set a school record for career tackles (509) and Sammy Brown finished the year with 30 tackles for a loss (a school record), including 13.5 sacks (second on the all-time Houston list). Brown led the FBS in TFL (2.1 per game) en route to All-America honors.

Another reason for Houston's defensive improvement was the play of cornerback D.J. Hayden. The junior-college transfer was named the 2011 Conference USA Newcomer of the Year after posting 11 pass breakups, two interceptions and five forced fumbles. Hayden was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the first round (12th overall) of 2013 NFL Draft.

Stewart went to Houston after an eight-year run as an NFL assistant, including two years (2007-08) as the defensive coordinator with Dallas, where he guided the Cowboys to two top-10 rankings in fewest yards allowed. While in the NFL, Stewart helped his players make 14 Pro Bowl appearances.

The Cowboys led the league with 59 sacks in 2008 and ranked third in that category in 2007 (46). An NFL-best five Cowboys defenders (DeMarcus Ware, Roy Williams, Greg Ellis, Ken Hamlin and Terence Newman) earned Pro Bowl selections after the 2007 campaign.

Stewart spent the 2009 season as a defensive special assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he coached the NFL's top cornerback interception tandem of Asante Samuel (nine) and Sheldon Brown (five). Samuel led the league in interceptions in 2009 and was named to the 2010 Pro Bowl.

Stewart served as the secondary coach with the San Diego Chargers for three seasons (2004-06). During his final year, the Chargers posted a 14-2 record and ranked seventh in the NFL in scoring defense (18.9 points allowed per game), while cornerback Quentin Jammer had a career-high four interceptions.

Stewart began his NFL career as an assistant defensive backs coach with the Houston Texans (2002-03).

Before joining the professional ranks, Stewart spent his first nine years of coaching at the collegiate level.

He served as the defensive backs coach at Syracuse in 2001 when he helped lead the Orange to a 10-3 overall record and No. 14 ranking in final Associated Press poll.

Stewart also coached the secondary at San Jose State (1997-98) and Missouri (1999-2000).

During his tenure at SJSU, his unit tied for seventh nationally with 20 interceptions in 1997, while the Spartans' pass defense ranked 37th nationally, its highest finish in the 1990s.

Stewart also mentored Missouri all-league free safety Julian Jones, who had a Big 12-best six interceptions in 1999.

A former college cornerback and free safety with Northern Arizona and Santa Monica City College, Stewart earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from NAU in 1995.

His first coaching position came as offensive assistant at Cal Poly, where he worked with the wide receivers in 1993 and running backs in 1994, when the Mustangs won the American West Conference title.

The native of West Covina, Calif., also coached tight ends at Northern Arizona University (1995) and was a graduate assistant at Missouri (1996).

Stewart is involved with a number of off-the-field endeavors.

He is the president of the Urban Football Coaches Association which conducts an annual coaching clinic in Los Angeles.

Andre Powell

Special Teams Coordinator/Running Backs
Indiana '89 • Fourth Year at Maryland

Andre Powell is in his fourth season with the Maryland football team.

Powell oversees the Terrapin running backs. He also assumed the duties of special teams coordinator in February 2012.

Sophomores Brandon Ross and Albert Reid handled the bulk of the carries for Powell in 2013 with freshman Jacquille Veii seeing playing time as well. Ross established single-game career highs in rushing yards (149), rushing touchdowns (2), receiving yards (81) and all-purpose yards (169) last season. Ross finished the season with 865 yards rushing (64.7 ypg) and four touchdowns.

Powell's special teams' unit emerged as one of the best in the country. The Terps ranked fifth in the ACC and 39th nationally in kick returns (22.84 ypr) and fifth in the conference and 34th nationally in punt returns (10.74 ypr).

Freshman William Likely made a name for himself averaging 26.0 yards per kick return, which ranked third in the conference and 23rd nationally, and averaging 12.8 yards per punt return, which ranked fourth in the ACC and 17th nationally. Likely earned ACC Rookie of the Week honors following his performance at Virginia Tech where he totaled 179 all-purpose yards and registered his first career touchdown returning a punt 63 yards.

Lou Groza semifinalist Brad Craddock turned in a strong season converting 84 percent of his field goal attempts (21-of-25), which ranked fourth in the conference and 28th nationally. His 1.62 field goal-per-game average led the ACC and tied for eighth nationally.

In 2012, Powell started four different running backs. Redshirt freshman Brandon Ross set then career-highs for rushing with at least 100 yards in two of the final three games, including 141 yards in the final contest at North Carolina.

Powell also oversaw an explosive special teams unit. Under Powell's direction, true freshman Stefon Diggs excelled as one of the most dynamic returners in the conference. Diggs totaled 1,896 all-purpose yards, which is the second-highest single-season total in school history and the most by a freshman. His 172.4 all-purpose yards per game ranked second in the ACC. He scored touchdowns receiving, on kickoff returns and throwing. On the season, he was named ACC Rookie of the Week three times and Specialist of the Week twice. He finished second in the voting for ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year by the coaches and was named a second-team specialist.

Powell came to Maryland after spending the previous four seasons at Clemson where he coached running backs and coordinated the special teams his final three years. In addition to his four seasons with the Tigers, Powell coached at Virginia (1996-2000) and North Carolina (2001-06).

At Clemson, he coached unanimous first-team All-American running back and return specialist C.J. Spiller, helping him become the No. 9 overall selection of the Buffalo Bills in the 2010 NFL Draft. Spiller was the ACC Player of the Year in 2009 and finished his career No. 2 in NCAA FBS history in all-purpose running.

Spiller ranked in the top 15 in the FBS in kickoff returns in each of his final three years (2007-09) and became the first running back in ACC history with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season (2009). He also set the FBS record for career kickoff returns for touchdowns (seven) and tied the record for total kick returns for a score (eight).

Powell also tutored All-ACC running back James Davis in 2007 and 2008, who along with Spiller, is among the top three rushers in Clemson history.

Along with the success of his running backs, Powell oversaw a kickoff-return unit that finished in the top 25 nationally his first three seasons and in the top 40 in 2010. In 2009, the Tigers ranked seventh in the country in punt returns, including a pair of touchdowns.

In addition, Clemson was 113th in the nation in kickoff return yardage defense the year before Powell arrived in Death Valley. The first year he took over the unit (2008) the Tigers were No. 47 nationally and the following season they reached No. 24 in the country.

That success translated to consistent winning as the Tigers went to a bowl game every year Powell was at Clemson and finished in the top 25 of the final AP poll in 2007 and 2009.

While at North Carolina, Powell coached a future NFL standout in running back Willie Parker, as well as Ronnie McGill, who finished his career 10th in school history with 2,393 rushing yards.

Powell also coached special teams his final three seasons at UNC. He steered the Tar Heels' kickoff return unit to a No. 7 national ranking in 2005 and second in the ACC in 2006.

Prior to his time at North Carolina, Powell spent five seasons with the Cavaliers where he coached the running backs in 1996, the wide receivers from 1997-99 and the running backs again in 2000. At Virginia, he tutored future NFL players Tiki Barber, Germaine Crowell, Thomas Jones, Charles Kirby, Pat Washington and Terrence Wilkins.

Powell also had two different stints as an assistant coach at Army (1991, 95), along with graduate assistant positions at Indiana (1989) and South Carolina (1990). He coached running backs for the first time at Virginia Military Institute (1992) and spent two seasons (1993-94) coaching the same unit at Rhode Island.

A native of Lockhart, S.C., Powell played two seasons at Lees-McRae (1984-85) prior to earning two letters at Indiana where he was a member of two bowl teams (1986 All-American Bowl; 1988 Peach Bowl). He earned Indiana's Most Improved Player award during his senior season and was the lead blocker for 1,000-yard rusher Anthony Thompson that season.

Powell earned a bachelor's of science degree in health, physical education & recreation from Indiana in 1989. He and his wife Joann have a son, Andre II, and two daughters, Alayna and Mikala.

Lyndon Johnson

Assistant Head Coach/Outside Linebackers
Connecticut '92 • Fourth Year at Maryland

After spending 12 seasons in a variety of roles on head coach Randy Edsall's staff at Connecticut, Lyndon Johnson is in his third season at Maryland and first as assistant head coach after being named to the position this past offseason. Johnson also oversees the outside linebackers.

With Johnson's guidance, Matt Robinson made a smooth transition from safety to outside linebacker last season. In his first season in the position, Robinson ranked fourth on the squad with 73 tackles including 10 tackles for loss, which was the third-highest total on the team. Robinson collected ACC Linebacker of the Week honors following Maryland's win at NC State in the regular season finale after totaling a career-best 17 tackles.

On the other side of the field, honorable mention All-ACC selection Marcus Whitfield developed into a pass-rushing force registering 15.5 tackles for loss and nine sacks, which ranked eighth in the ACC. Whitfield set a single-game career high for sacks at Connecticut registering three to earn him ACC Linebacker of the Week honors.

Robinson and Whitfield were key pieces of a Terrapin defense that tied for third in the ACC in sacks (37) and that ranked eighth nationally averaging 7.8 TFLs per game.

Under Johnson's watch in 2012, Darin Drakeford tied for the team lead with six sacks, a total that ranked him in the top 10 in the conference. In 11 games during the 2012 season, Drakeford totaled 49 tackles (27 solo), 9.5 tackles for loss, two passes broken up and two forced fumbles.

That season, the Maryland defensive unit ranked second in the ACC and 21st nationally in overall defense (336.8 ypg), second in the ACC and 26th nationally in run defense (129.3 ypg), third in ACC and 32nd nationally in pass defense (207.5 ypg) and sixth in the ACC in scoring defense (27.2 ppg).

The UConn graduate coached tight ends and special teams his first three seasons (1999-2001) with the Huskies.

He became Edsall's recruiting coordinator from 2002-05 before moving back to special teams for his final four seasons.

Johnson handled the outside-linebacker position throughout his final nine years in Storrs, Conn.

Johnson had the top kick returner in the nation in 2010 in Nick Williams, who averaged 35.3 yards per attempt and had two touchdowns. As a team, the Huskies ranked third nationally in kickoff returns, bolstering a run to the Big East Championship and a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskies were ninth in the FBS in kickoff returns in 2009 (25.8 yards per return), while setting a school record with three returns for touchdown, and Robert McClain ranked 18th nationally in punt returns (12.6 ypr).

UConn's special teams also aided its run to the 2007 Big East Championship. The team returned two punts for touchdowns and also returned two kickoffs for touchdowns. The season saw Tony Ciaravino score an even 100 points, a record for a UConn kicker, and punter Desi Cullen record a 40.7 yard average, fifth-best in UConn history.

Cullen concluded his career in 2009 and had the career record for punting average with 41.1 yards per punt and set the single-season record at 42.8.

During the 2007 and 2008 seasons, Johnson coached linebacker Scott Lutrus to postseason honors. Lutrus was a first-team freshman All-America selection after the 2007 campaign and an All-Big East pick in 2008.

Johnson began his coaching career at Brien McMahon High School in Norwalk, Conn., where he spent four seasons (1993-96) including the final two as defensive coordinator.

He made his collegiate coaching debut at Sacred Heart in Bridgeport, Conn., where he served as defensive coordinator in 1997, before moving on to Fordham to coach the defensive line in 1998.

Johnson, a four-year letterwinner for UConn from 1989-1992, started all 33 games on the offensive line over his final three seasons. He served as team captain in 1991 and was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player that year. He was a second team All-Yankee Conference pick in 1989 and a second team All-ECAC selection in 1990.

A native of Norwalk, Conn., Johnson received his degree in sociology from UConn in 1992. He and his wife Cynthia have two sons, Taren and Trace.

Keith Dudzinski

Inside Linebackers

New Haven '91 • Fourth Year at Maryland

A long-time defensive coordinator, Keith Dudzinski is in his fourth season as a Maryland assistant coach, overseeing the inside linebackers.

Under Dudzinski in 2013, Cole Farrand and L.A. Goree ranked second and third, respectively, in tackles on the team. Farrand totaled 84 tackles last season including a career-high 23-tackle performance against Clemson. It marked the most tackles by a Maryland player in a game since 1990. Farrand also posted 4.5 tackles for loss and forced one fumble en route to honorable mention All-ACC honors.

Goree totaled a career-best 76 tackles with 4.5 tackles for a loss, a sack and a forced fumble. Goree took home ACC Linebacker of the Week honors following the Terps' win over Virginia after racking up a career-best 16 stops, nine solo.

In 2012, Dudzinski's two starting inside linebackers (Demetrius Hartsfield and Farrand) tied for the team lead with 78 tackles, with Hartsfield earning second-team All-ACC honors. The Maryland defensive unit finished the season ranked second in the ACC and 21st nationally in overall defense (336.8 ypg), second in the ACC and 26th nationally in run defense (129.3 ypg) and sixth in the ACC in scoring (27.2 ppg).

Prior to coming to Maryland, Dudzinski served as the defensive coordinator at UMass-Amherst the previous seven years, his second stop at the school and second career stint as a coordinator. During his tenure, the Minutemen maintained one of the top defensive units in the nation.

UMass finished among the top-20 in total defense three times (third in 2005; 20th in 2006; 13th in 2007) and the Minutemen were also first nationally in scoring defense in 2005 and fifth in 2006.

Dudzinski has coached a number of standout performers at his five stops as a collegiate coach.

Former Maryland linebacker, Demetrius Hartsfield ranked second in the ACC and fifth nationally in tackles (12.0 per game) in 2011 en route to honorable mention all-league honors.

In addition, Goree earned freshman All-America honors in 2011 after starting at both the Mike and Will positions, and averaging 5.0 tackles per game.

UMass linebacker Tyler Holmes was a finalist for the 2010 Buck Buchanan Award, honoring the top defensive player in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

In 2009, Holmes had a tremendous season as he was named All-Colonial Athletic Association after racking up 100 tackles. In 2008, guided by Dudzinski UMass had one of the top linebacker corps in the nation led by first team all-conference selection Josh Jennings who racked up 90 tackles.

The 2007 season was no different as the Minutemen led the CAA in total defense (309.6 yards per game), scoring defense (19.2 points per game), sacks, tackles for loss and passing efficiency defense. The UMass defense had five first-team All-CAA selections that year including linebackers Jason Hatchell and Charles Walker, who both worked directly with Dudzinski.

Hatchell was an All-American and Buchanan Award candidate in 2007 after piling up 115 tackles. He finished his career with 360 stops, sixth in UMass history. Walker had a team-high 116 tackles in 2007 and finished ninth in career stops (340).

UMass' defense was impressive throughout the 2006 season as the Minutemen advanced to the National Championship game. The Minutemen led the nation in scoring defense until that championship game, finishing fifth, giving up 13.3 points per game. The Minutemen finished in the top-20 nationally in nine defensive statistics.

Dudzinski worked directly with three all-league linebackers in Hatchell, Walker and Brad Anderson. All three players racked up more than 100 tackles on the season. Hatchell, also an All-American that season, emerged as one of the nation's top tacklers after finishing second in the conference with 134 stops.

The Minutemen had a league-best 20 all-conference honorees in 2006, including eight on defense.

During his second season in Amherst, Mass., Dudzinski oversaw a defense which led the nation in fewest points allowed (13.3 ppg). The Minutemen also led the Atlantic 10 in five defensive categories and ranked in the nation's top five in four. UMass topped the conference in total yardage defense, passing defense, pass efficiency defense, net punting and scoring defense.

Working with the linebackers, he coached two A-10 second-team honorees in two-time team captain Serge Tikum and Hatchell, who had a team-high 107 tackles. The defense also included two-time consensus first-team All-American Shannon James and all-league selections defensive end Keron Williams and safety James Ihedigbo.

In 2004, Dudzinski headed up a defense which featured consensus first-team All-American Shannon James, who led the nation in interceptions.

Dudzinski spent two seasons (2002-03) as linebackers coach at Northeastern, including defensive coordinator his final year.

He directed the career of first team All-American and two-time first team All-Atlantic 10 selection Liam Ezekiel, who made 140 total tackles in 2003.

During the 2002 season, the Huskies allowed opponents only 299.3 total yards and 16.0 points per game. During the 2002 campaign, Dudzinski helped lead Northeastern to a record of 10-3, a share of the Atlantic 10 Conference title and the school's first-ever trip to the NCAA Division I-AA (now FCS) Playoffs.

During his first stint as an assistant coach at UMass under Mark Whipple, Dudzinski served in a variety of roles on the defensive side of the ball. He coached the secondary in 2001, the linebackers in 1999 and 2000, and the defensive line in 1998. He also oversaw the special teams his final three seasons.

Dudzinski guided the career of Kole Ayi, who was a two-time first team All-American (1999-2000) and two-time Buck Buchanan Award finalist.

Dudzinski first joined the UMass staff after spending four years at Brown under Whipple as the defensive line coach for the Bears. Dudzinski helped the Brown defense hold opponents to just 194 total points during the 1997 season (19.4 points per game) -- the fewest number of points allowed by the school in 10 years. While at Brown, he helped develop two-time first-team All-Ivy defensive tackle Brendan Finneran (1996 and 1997).

Prior to coming to Brown, Dudzinski was a defensive assistant at New Haven under Whipple for three years (1991-93), working with the outside linebackers. He has also worked as an assistant coach at Kolbe Cathedral High School in Bridgeport, Conn., and St. Joseph's High School in Trumbull, Conn.

John Dunn

Tight Ends/Recruiting Coordinator
North Carolina '05 • Fourth Year at Maryland

John Dunn is in his fourth season with Maryland serving as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Under Dunn's leadership, Maryland has signed a top-35 recruiting class in two of the past three years. In addition, for the third consecutive season, Maryland landed a five-star recruit in the 2014 class in local offensive lineman Damian Prince.

In 2012 and 2013, both of Dunn's classes featured the Gatorade Player of the Year in Washington, D.C., (Yannick Ngakoue in 2013 and Albert Reid in 2012) and a five-star recruit (Deon Long in 2013 and Stefon Diggs in 2012).

Dunn and head coach Randy Edsall have made it a priority to recruit the Maryland/Washington, D.C. area. Of the 63 players signed since 2012, 33 have been from the region. In 2014, Dunn's stewardship helped land the top-two players in Maryland according to Rivals.com, Prince and Jesse Aniebonam, a year after landing four of the top seven players in D.C.

This past season, Dunn worked with Dave Stinebaugh, who hauled in 15 receptions for 204 yards and three touchdowns, tied for the second-highest total on the team. Dunn also guided true freshman Andrew Isaacs, who saw increased playing time as the season progressed.

In his first two seasons at Maryland, Dunn tutored Matt Furstenburg, who compiled 46 catches for 554 yards (12.0 avg.) and four touchdowns. Furstenburg signed with the Baltimore Ravens during the 2013 offseason.

Before coming to Maryland, Dunn spent the previous three seasons as a graduate offensive assistant with LSU.

At LSU, Dunn helped coach the offensive line and quarterbacks and ran meetings with those position groups. Dunn also had primary responsibility for the assimilation of the playbook and all computer drawings, as well as all practice scripts and game plans.

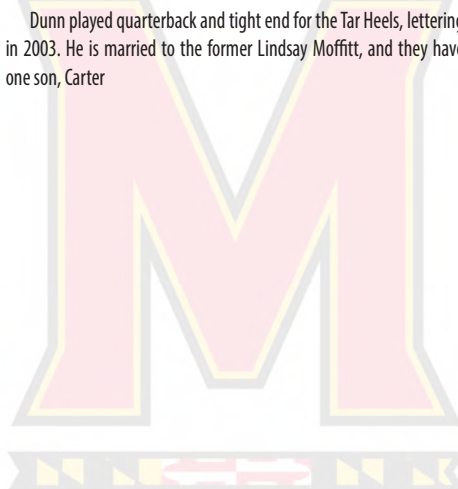

In 2010, the Tigers went 11-2 and defeated Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, their fifth victory over a ranked opponent that season. In his three years at LSU, the Tigers had a 28-11 record and went 2-1 in bowl games.

Dunn also assisted with all on-campus recruiting for the Tigers, as they pulled in the No. 11 class in 2008, the No. 1 class in 2009 and the No. 8 class in 2010, according to ESPN.com's rankings.

Dunn walked on at North Carolina in 2001 and played there until 2003 when his career was cut short by a neck injury. He served as a student assistant while finishing his undergraduate studies. In his second season on the Tar Heel staff, Dunn became a quality control assistant and then worked as a graduate coaching assistant on the offensive side of the ball his final two years (2006-07) in Chapel Hill.

At Carolina, Dunn helped tutor wide receiver Hakeem Nicks who finished the '07 season ranked in the top-35 nationally in receptions (6.2) and receiving yards per game (79.83) while earning All-ACC first team honors. Nicks was taken 29th overall by the New York Giants in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Dunn played quarterback and tight end for the Tar Heels, lettering in 2003. He is married to the former Lindsay Moffitt, and they have one son, Carter

Keenan McCardell

Wide Receivers

UNLV '91 • First Year at Maryland

Keenan McCardell is in his first season as Maryland's wide receivers coach.

A two-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time Super Bowl champion, McCardell spent 19 seasons in the NFL, 17 as a player. The Houston native spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as the wide receivers coach for the Washington Redskins.

After setting a then-franchise record for receptions in 2010 (349), McCardell's unit totaled 346 receptions in the 2011 season, the second-highest total in franchise history at the time, and eclipsed the 4,000-yard plateau for the sixth time in franchise history (4,058).

In 2010, McCardell presided over a receiving corps that helped the Redskins set a then-franchise record for completions in a season (349). McCardell's unit provided one of the league's most consistent big play threats, as the team led the league with nine completions of at least 50 yards. Under McCardell's guidance, undrafted free agent Anthony Armstrong had four receptions of 50-plus yards, and Armstrong's 871 receiving yards were the most since 2004 by a Redskins' receiver other than Santana Moss. Moss posted a career-high 93 receptions in 2010 and led the team in receiving yards (1,115) for the sixth consecutive season.

As a player, McCardell played in 209 career games, with 168 starts, and amassed 883 receptions for 11,373 yards, and 63 touchdowns. His reception total is 16th on the all-time list, while his receiving yardage total ranks 27th. McCardell played for five NFL franchises in his 17-year career mostly notably with the Jacksonville Jaguars from 1996-2001.

McCardell ranks second all-time in receptions (499) and receiving yards (6,393) in Jaguars history including a career-best 94 receptions for 1,207 yards during the 2000 season. McCardell earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 1996 after totaling a team-best 85 receptions for 1,129 yards and three touchdowns. McCardell spent six seasons with the Jaguars including the 1996 and 1997 seasons, when current Maryland head coach Randy Edsall served as the team's defensive backs coach.

Following six seasons in Jacksonville, McCardell played two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and helped the franchise win its first-ever Super Bowl title in 2002. McCardell led the team with six touchdown receptions and ranked second on the team with 61 catches that season. In 2003, McCardell was selected to the Pro Bowl for the second time after registering 84 receptions for 1,174 yards and eight touchdowns.

McCardell entered the league in 1991 after being drafted by the Redskins in the 12th round of the NFL Draft out of UNLV. He spent his rookie season on Injured Reserve for a club that would win Super Bowl XXVI. McCardell completed his career with Washington in 2007.

Following his rookie campaign, McCardell landed in Cleveland, where he would play the next four seasons (1992-95). In his final season, McCardell emerged to record 56 catches for 709 yards and four touchdowns. The following offseason he became a free agent and signed with Jacksonville.

Following his time in Jacksonville and Tampa Bay, he moved on to San Diego, where he spent three seasons (2004-06) before playing his final year in Washington.

Upon finishing his playing career, McCardell began coaching by completing a Bill Walsh Minority Fellowship with the New York Giants during the team's 2009 training camp. He also coached the West's wide receivers in the 2010 East-West Shrine Game.

McCardell worked in broadcasting as a studio analyst for Comcast SportsNet for the Redskins' kickoff show in 2008 and served as a college football analyst for the Mountain West Network in 2009.

McCardell, and his wife, Nicole, have four children: daughters Keandra, Nia and Nakeeya, and son Keenan II.

Greg Studrawa

Offensive Line

Bowling Green '87 • First Year at Maryland

Greg Studrawa is in his first season as Maryland's offensive line coach.

Studrawa brings 25 years of collegiate coaching experience to College Park including the past seven seasons (2007-2013) at LSU serving as the offensive line coach along with two seasons as the offensive coordinator in 2011 and 2012.

In his seven years with the Tigers, Studrawa helped LSU to a national title, a pair of SEC titles and to five 10-plus win seasons. In his two years as LSU's offensive coordinator, Studrawa helped the Tigers to a 23-4 overall mark, and during his seven years on the staff, LSU posted a 73-20 mark.

During his tenure in Baton Rouge, Studrawa's line paved the way for four 1,000-yard backs – Jacob Hester in 2007, Charles Scott in 2008, Stevan Ridley in 2010, and Jeremy Hill in 2013.

In 2013, Studrawa coached an offensive line that featured a pair of second team All-SEC selections in junior tackle La'el Collins and sophomore guard Trai Turner. The Tiger offensive line also paved the way for running back Jeremy Hill to rush for 1,401 yards, the second-highest total in school history. As a unit, LSU's offense accounted for a school-record 37 rushing touchdowns.

In his two seasons serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, Studrawa's unit averaged over 170 yards rushing both times: 2012 (173.7 ypg) and 2011 (202.57 ypg). In 2011, the rushing attack ranked 22nd nationally as four running backs accounted for seven or more rushing touchdowns en route to setting a then-LSU school record with 35 rushing TDs.

In seven years at LSU, Studrawa produced eight All-SEC performers as well as two first-team All-Americans (Will Blackwell in 2011 and Herman Johnson in 2008) and a second-team All-America (Ciron Black in 2009) on the offensive line. Black was awarded the prestigious Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 2009, which goes to the top offensive lineman in the SEC.

In 2010, Studrawa tutored Joseph Barksdale to second team All-SEC honors before being selected in the third round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Barksdale led a unit that ranked fourth in the SEC in rushing yards (185.7) and fifth in the league in sacks allowed (24).

In his first year with the Tigers in 2007, Studrawa molded an offensive line that helped LSU capture both the national and league titles that year. LSU averaged 214.1 yards a game on the ground that season, which ranked 11th nationally.

Prior to joining LSU, Studrawa held the position of offensive coordinator at Bowling Green from 2003-06, overseeing some of the top offenses at both the national and Mid-America Conference level during that time. He was also the assistant head coach for the Falcons during the 2006 season.

In his four years as the offensive coordinator, Bowling Green played in two bowl games – beating Northwestern, 28-24, in the 2003 Motor City Bowl and defeating Memphis, 52-35, in the 2004 GMAC Bowl – and posted a combined record of 30-19. Studrawa also helped lead the Falcons to two of the biggest wins in school history as they beat 16th-ranked Purdue, 27-26, in 2003 and followed that with a 34-18 victory over 12th-ranked Northern Illinois later that year.

In 2005, Studrawa led a Bowling Green offense that ranked second in the MAC in both passing (283.9) and scoring (33.8) and was third in the league in pass efficiency (142.4).

In 2004, BGSU finished second nationally in total offense with a MAC record 506.3 yards per game. That season, the Falcons had four games of scoring at least 50 points as they averaged 49.4 points over their final nine games of the season.

Individually, quarterback Omar Jacobs was named the 2004 MAC Offensive Player of the Year after leading the nation in TD passes with a league record 41. Jacobs was second in the nation in passing yards per game as well as total offense and set an NCAA record with a 41:4 TD-interception ratio. Jacobs went on to become a fifth round NFL Draft pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2006.

Studrawa also guided an offensive line that allowed a league-low 11 sacks in 2004 as three members of that interior line were named All-MAC, including center Scott Mruczkowski, who was selected in the seventh round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers.

In his first year as Bowling Green's offensive coordinator, Studrawa guided the Falcon offense to a No. 3 national ranking in total offense. The Falcons were also ranked 11th nationally in passing, 14th in pass efficiency and No. 18 in rushing.

The 2003 Bowling Green offense broke a total of 10 school records during the season – six team and four individual – on its way to an 11-3 overall mark, which was capped with a 28-24 win over Big Ten member Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl.

Studrawa served as the offensive line coach at Bowling Green in 2001 and 2002 before being elevated to the offensive coordinator position in 2003.

Prior to his return to Bowling Green, he spent three years as the offensive line coach at Arkansas State. Other coaching stops for Studrawa include serving as a graduate assistant at Cincinnati in 1989 and 1990 as well as holding offensive coordinator duties at Wilmington (Ohio) College from 1991-96. He followed that with a one-year stint as a graduate assistant at Ohio State in 1997.

As a player, Studrawa was a two-year starter at left tackle for Bowling Green in 1986 and 1987. Studrawa was named the recipient of Bowling Green's Coaches Award following the 1987 season.

A native of Fostoria, Ohio, Studrawa and his wife Cindy have three daughters – Samantha, Katelin, and Allison.

Chad Wilt

Defensive Line

Taylor University '00 • First Year at Maryland

Chad Wilt is in his first season as Maryland's defensive line coach.

Wilt arrived in College Park following three seasons as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Ball State working with a defensive unit that improved each of his three seasons in Muncie, Ind.

The Cardinals improved from 13th in total defense in the MAC in 2011 to seventh in 2013. In addition, the Cardinals' rushing defense and sack totals improved each year. The Cardinals ranked 13th in the MAC in Wilt's first season before improving to seventh in total defense, while the sacks totals increased from 16 (2011) to 27 (2013).

Last season, Wilt coached defensive end Jonathan Newsome to All-Mid-American Conference first team honors after Newsome finished with 10 sacks, the second-highest total in the MAC, and 11.5 tackles for loss. Defensive tackle Nathan Ollie joined Newsome on the All-MAC squad. Ollie earned second team honors after posting 10.0 TFL as the Cardinals earned a berth to the GoDaddy Bowl.

In 2012, Wilt helped Newsome garner second team all-conference accolades after ranking fourth in the MAC with 8.5 sacks and racking up 12.5 TFL, while Ollie picked up third team honors after being named to the second team in 2011. The Cardinals concluded the season with a trip to the Beef 'O' Brady Bowl.

Prior to his stint with Ball State, Wilt spent one season with the University of Richmond as a defensive line coach and helped Martin Parker earn All-American honors after totaling 14 TFL and 5.5 sacks.

Following the 2010 season, Parker was named the most valuable player on defense in the East-West Shrine Bowl and was signed as an undrafted free agent by the New Giants. Parker would help the franchise win Super Bowl XLVI before his career was cut short due to injury.

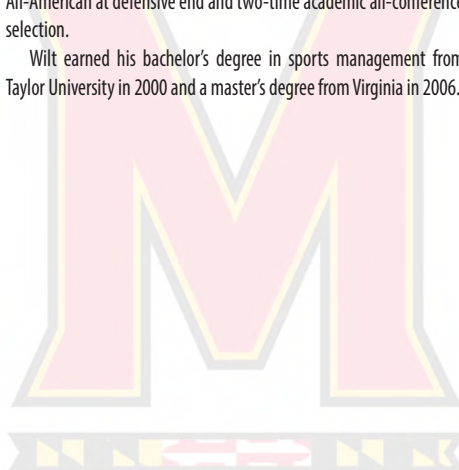

Wilt coached the defensive line during the 2009 season at Virginia. He oversaw the development of All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection Nate Collins, who signed with the Chicago Bears in prior to the start of the 2010 NFL season.

From 2006 through 2008, Wilt served as the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at Liberty. During his tenure, the Flames won two Big South Conference titles and he coached five student-athletes who received All-America recognition.

Before arriving at Liberty, Wilt spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Virginia (2004-05) and three seasons as a defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at Central Connecticut State (2001-03).

The native of Carlisle, Pa., was a three-time all-conference selection at Taylor University in Upland, Ind., and was a two-time NAIA All-American at defensive end and two-time academic all-conference selection.

Wilt earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Taylor University in 2000 and a master's degree from Virginia in 2006.

Aug. 31, 2013

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - C.J. Brown celebrated his return from injury with a marvelous performance, throwing for three touchdowns and running for two scores to lead Maryland over Florida International.

Brown missed all of last year after tearing his left ACL in preseason practice. The senior made up for lost time during a torrid first half, completing 15 of 16 passes and running for 99 yards to help the Terrapins go up 40-10.

Brown finished 20 for 23 for 281 yards passing and ran for 105 yards on 11 carries before being removed in the third quarter. His touchdown runs were 29 and 11 yards, and he threw for scores of 25, 17 and 66 yards.

FIU gave up 399 yards before halftime and managed only 59 yards and three first downs over the opening 30 minutes.

The Maryland offense amassed 576 yards and the only scores against the defense came after turnovers.

Maryland moved 50 yards on its first possession before Brad Craddock made a short field goal. Sam Miller fumbled the subsequent kickoff, setting up another field goal for a 6-0 lead.

Florida International's first score came when Sergio Sroka kicked a 32-yard field goal after Maryland William Likely mishandled a punt.

Brown answered with a 29-yard touchdown run around left end, the final play of an 86-yard drive in which Diggs ran for 26 yards with a pitch from Brown off the option.

On the first snap of the second quarter, Brown put a nice touch on a 25-yard toss to Long in the right side of the end zone, making it 20-3.

Later, Brown fumbled in the pocket and FIU recovered on the Maryland 25. That led to a 1-yard run on fourth down by fullback Lamarq Caldwell.

Brown quickly made amends. He ran for 64 yards around left end before lofting a 17-yard touchdown pass to Kenneth Goins to put Maryland up 26-10.

Sept. 7, 2013

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - C.J. Brown threw for two touchdowns and ran for two, Brandon Ross rushed for 149 yards and Maryland capitalized on three interceptions in a 47-10 rout of Old Dominion.

Brown directed touchdown drives of 77, 46, 97 and 80 yards to stake the Terrapins (2-0) to a 31-3 halftime lead. Ross had 126 yards rushing during a first half in which Maryland amassed 392 yards and 20 first downs.

The fifth-year senior completed 14 of 22 passes for 275 yards and ran four times for 30 yards in three quarters of work.

Stefon Diggs caught six passes for 179 yards and a touchdown for Maryland.

Old Dominion (0-2) compiled 335 yards in offense but didn't get in the end zone until Cam Boyd scored on a 3-yard run with 5:05 left. Taylor Heinicke went 18 for 34 for 166 yards before being removed late in the third quarter.

After throwing an interception on the opening drive to set up a Maryland field goal, Heinicke took the Monarchs 66 yards in 10 rapid-fire plays to set up a field goal.

The Terrapins went up 10-3 on a 5-yard run by Ross, and the next series started with Heinicke getting sacked for a 16-yard loss. Two plays later, Sean Davis picked off a third-down pass.

Brown then completed a 41-yard pass to Diggs before running it from the 5 for a 17-3 lead.

Early in the second quarter, ODU had a third-and-goal at the Maryland 2 before Yannick Ngakoue intercepted a deflected pass.

The frenzied pace was interrupted by a couple of punts before Brown directed a nine-play, 97-yard drive that featured six runs by Ross and ended with Diggs grabbing a short pass, high-stepping along the right sideline and diving into the end zone with a somersault for a 41-yard touchdown.

Minutes later, backup running back Albert Reid scored on a 27-yard run to make it 31-3.

Sept. 14, 2013

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. - C.J. Brown ran for 122 yards and a touchdown and threw for 277 yards and another score as Maryland beat UConn 32-21. Stefon Diggs had 110 yards receiving, including a 12-yard touchdown for the Terrapins, who improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2001.

Maryland, which led just 13-10 at the half, put up 501 yards of offense, going over 500 yards for the third straight game.

Shakim Phillips caught a career-high 10 passes for 178 yards and a late touchdown for UConn, which fell to 0-2 for the first time since 2002.

Diggs, who caught five balls, had 98 yards receiving at the half. His 12-yard catch and run in the third quarter capped a four-play 80-yard drive in the third quarter that put the Terps up 20-10.

The Huskies cut the lead to 20-13 on a 34-yard field goal that came after Maryland fumbled the ball at its own 25.

But Dexter McDougle stepped in front of Jeremy Davis on the right sideline, and took an interception back 49-yards across the field for a touchdown to give Maryland some breathing room. It was one of two interceptions on the day for the senior cornerback.

UConn quarterback Chandler Whitmer was 29-of-46 for a career-high 349 yards, a touchdown and those two picks. His intentional grounding penalty in the UConn end zone with just under 9 minutes left, put the Terrapins up by three scores, and put the game out of reach.

Brad Craddock added a 40-yard field goal, his third of the game.

Phillips boosted his stats with a late 75-yard touchdown catch and run, but had to be helped off the field after getting injured on the play.

Sept. 21, 2013

BALTIMORE - A.J. Hendy scored on a 28-yard interception return and recovered two fumbles as unbeaten Maryland forced six turnovers in a surprisingly easy victory over West Virginia.

Off to their best start since 2001, the Terrapins (4-0) led 30-0 at halftime after limiting the Mountaineers (2-2) to two first downs and picking off two passes.

C.J. Brown rushed for a touchdown and passed for a score to help Maryland end a seven-game losing streak against its border rivals. It was the Terrapins' most lopsided win in the series since a 54-7 blowout in 1951.

Brown and the offense played well, but the defense did most of the damage. Not only did Hendy score, but Yannik Cudjoe-Virgil picked off a pass near the West Virginia goal line to set up another touchdown. The Terrapins also recovered four fumbles.

West Virginia finished with 175 yards in offense in its first shutout loss since a 35-0 defeat against Virginia Tech on Oct. 6, 2001.

In the first half, West Virginia compiled a mere 65 yards in offense compared to 61 yards in penalties.

Maryland took advantage of a West Virginia miscue to go up 7-0. A bouncing kick went off the leg of Mountaineers punt returner Ronald Carswell, and Hendy recovered on the West Virginia 24 to set up a deflected 6-yard touchdown pass from Brown to tight end Dave Stinebaugh.

On the second play after the kickoff, Hendy picked off a sideline pass by Childress and went the distance for a 14-0 lead.

It began to rain early in the second quarter while Maryland went on a 34-yard march that led to a 50-yard field goal by Brad Craddock.

Another three-and-out by the Mountaineers was followed by a 62-yard march that produced another field goal to make it 20-0, and Craddock added another with 1:35 left in the half.

But Maryland wasn't done. Cudjoe-Virgil deflected a pass at the line of scrimmage and fell with it in his hands. That gave the Terrapins the ball at the West Virginia 6, and Brown scored from the 1 with 18 seconds remaining.

Oct. 5, 2013

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - The 25th-ranked Maryland football team dropped its first game of the season, 63-0, to eighth-ranked Florida State at Doak Campbell Stadium.

The Seminoles (5-0, 3-0) rode the arm of quarterback Jameis Winston, who completed 23 of 32 passes for 393 yards and a career-high five touchdowns. The Seminoles put up 614 yards of total offense.

The Terps (4-1, 0-1) were unable to get anything going offensively and lost quarterback C.J. Brown late in the second quarter with an injury. The Terps' second-ranked offense in the ACC was held to 234 yards.

The Terrapins were held to 121 first-half yards and Florida State gave up a season-low 11 yards rushing on 10 attempts in the first half. Maryland punted on its first three possessions of the game, a Florida State. The Terps converted just 1 of 7 third downs in the first 30 minutes and 2 of 15 all game.

Brown went down late in the second quarter with the Terrapins trailing 14-0. Brown released a pass downfield just before Dan Hicks hit him around the waist and Jacobbi McDaniel followed with a blow to the chest.

Caleb Rowe stepped in for Brown and completed 9-of-17 passes for 119 yards. Rowe's long pass of the day was a 26-yard completion to wide receiver Nigel King late in the third quarter.

The Maryland offense was held to 234 yards and 33 yards rushing on 25 attempts. Eight different receivers caught passes on Saturday led by wide receiver Deon Long. The junior wideout caught three passes for 77 yards and averaged 25.7 yards per catch. Nigel King had a season-high 46 receiving yards on three receptions, while Stefon Diggs finished with two receptions for 24 yards.

The Seminoles scored on their first drive, a Karlos Williams 1-yard touchdown run, and then punted on the next three consecutive drives.

The Seminoles scored touchdowns on their next eight consecutive possessions.

	Game 6
Virginia	26
Maryland	27
Oct. 12, 2013

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Caleb Rowe threw for 332 yards and hit tight end Dave Stinebaugh for the go-ahead score with 5:14 left as Maryland beat Virginia 27-26 in perhaps the final meeting between these border rivals.

Rowe's 12-yard touchdown pass made it 27-26. Virginia moved to the Maryland 24-yard line in the closing seconds before Alec Vozenilek's 42-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right with 10 seconds remaining.

Rowe made his second career start in place of C.J. Brown, who sustained a concussion in last week's 63-0 loss at Florida State. Rowe went 18 for 34 and directed an offense that accumulated 468 yards.

Brandon Ross ran for 88 yards and two touchdowns for the Terrapins (5-1, 1-1), who ended a three-game skid at home against the Cavaliers (2-4, 0-2).

David Watford went 27 for 44 for 263 yards and a score, and tight end Jake McGee had eight catches for 114 yards for Cavaliers, who have lost three straight. Kevin Parks ran for 112 yards and a touchdown, and Khalek Shepherd contributed 81 yards rushing to an offense that amassed 505 yards.

Rowe brought the Terrapins from behind, with the help of two exceptional catches. After Deon Long leaped between two defenders to grab a floater on a third-and-22 for a 47-yard gain to the Virginia 13, Stinebaugh made a diving catch in the middle of the end zone.

The Terrapins trailed 23-20 in the fourth quarter when a Virginia punt hit a Maryland player and was recovered by the Cavaliers. That led to Vozenilek's fourth field goal with 7:11 remaining.

Down at halftime, Maryland got two field goals from Brad Craddock in the third quarter to take a 20-16 lead.

The advantage disappeared when Parks scored on a 6-yard run with 13:15 left in the game.

Vozenilek kicked three field goals, and the Cavaliers took advantage of two Maryland turnovers in going up 16-14 at halftime.

	Game 7
Maryland	10
Wake Forest	34
Oct. 19, 2013

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Quarterback Tanner Price had touchdowns rushing, receiving and passing in Wake Forest's 34-10 victory over Maryland.

Price was 26 of 36 through the air for 231 yards, scored on a 4-yard run and caught a 4-yard TD pass from receiver Michael Campanaro.

Maryland backup quarterback Caleb Rowe threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to Levern Jacobs to pull Maryland to 24-10 midway through the third quarter.

Starter C.J. Brown was 15 of 24 for 137 yards in his return from a concussion for Maryland. But he was constantly harassed by nose tackle Nikita Whitlock, threw two interceptions in the second quarter that led directly to Price's first two touchdowns and was replaced by Rowe midway through the third.

Rowe finished 15 of 27 for 207 yards. Maryland outgained Wake Forest 383-307 but finished with three turnovers.

Josh Harris' 1-yard touchdown run on the opening series of the game put the Demon Deacons (4-3, 2-2) on their way to their fourth straight home victory over the Terrapins (5-2, 1-2).

The Demon Deacons scored on four of their six possessions in the first half and turned those turnovers into a 24-3 halftime lead.

Rowe's long strike to Jacobs pulled Maryland within 14 points with 7:47 left in the third quarter.

Price restored Wake Forest's three-touchdown lead with his scoring pass on the next possession, and Chad Hedlund put the Demon Deacons up by 24 with a 38-yard field goal with 7:46 to play.

Maryland lost starting receiver Deon Long to an apparent lower right leg injury early in the second quarter and top receiver Stefon Diggs to a lower leg injury early in the fourth.

	Game 8
Clemson	40
Maryland	27
Oct. 26, 2013

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Tajh Boyd threw for a touchdown and ran for a score, Sammy Watkins had a school-record 14 catches for 163 yards and No. 9 Clemson wore down injury-riddled Maryland 40-27.

Maryland played without several key injured starters, including quarterback C.J. Brown, running back Brandon Ross, wide receivers Stefon Diggs and Deon Long, and tight end Dave Stinebaugh. Five players who had started on defense were also injured and did not play.

Backup quarterback Caleb Rowe went 19-for-45 for 282 yards and three touchdowns. But the Terrapins went 48 minutes between their first and second touchdowns and committed four turnovers.

Trailing 16-7 at halftime, Maryland converted fumbles by Watkins and Roderick McDowell into field goals to close to 16-13 with four minutes elapsed in the third quarter.

Boyd responded with a 68-yard drive before Catanzaro connected on a 24-yarder.

Despite making only three first downs in the third quarter, Maryland remained within striking distance until the Terps lost a fumble at the Maryland 31, and Clemson's Spencer Shuey took it to the 22. Four plays later, Boyd ran it in from the 5 to make 26-13 with 13:04 left.

Down 3-0, the Terrapins got a big play from wide receiver Levern Jacobs in his first start of the year. Jacobs grabbed a short pass over the middle and sprinted into the end zone for a 71-yard touchdown. He finished with a career-high 158 yards on eight catches.

Boyd went 28 for 41 for 304 yards with an interception and McDowell rushed for 161 yards and two touchdowns.

Clemson ran 98 plays compared to 70 for Maryland (5-3, 1-3) and finished with a 551-364 advantage in total yardage. But the Tigers needed four field goals from Chandler Catanzaro to take a 19-13 lead into the fourth quarter.

Clemson scored the first 14 points of the final period to extend its lead.

Nov. 9, 2013

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Jerome Smith ran for 118 yards and two touchdowns, and Syracuse used a strong defensive effort to beat Maryland 20-3.

Smith scored from the 1 in the first quarter and added a 21-yard TD with 10:33 left to put the Orange up by 17.

Durrell Eskridge and Julian Whigham had interceptions for Syracuse, which also forced five fumbles - recovering two of them.

Maryland (5-4, 1-4) has lost three straight and four of five.

C.J. Brown went 21 for 40 for 211 yards and two interceptions for Maryland, which was limited to 151 yards in the second half.

In the fourth quarter, Orange quarterback Terrel Hunt ran for 29 yards to set up Smith's game-clinching touchdown jaunt.

Hunt finished 15 for 24 for 140 yards and an interception. He also ran for 67 yards on seven carries.

The Orange outgained Maryland 267-141 before halftime and scored on their first and last drives to take a 10-0 lead.

Syracuse took the opening kickoff and launched a 16-play drive that consumed nearly eight minutes and featured a pair of fourth-down gambles, the last of which produced Smith's first touchdown run.

In the second quarter, a fumble by Smith started a run of five of six possessions that ended in turnovers, including three by Maryland - two interceptions by Brown and a fumble by Amba Etta-Tawo. Syracuse converted the last turnover into a 34-yard field goal by Ryan Norton.

Etta-Tawo finished with career-highs of six catches and 109 receiving yards.

	Game 10
Maryland	27
Virginia Tech	24 (OT)
Nov. 16, 2013

BLACKSBURG, Va. - C.J. Brown ran for 122 yards, including a touchdown in overtime, and Maryland beat Virginia Tech 27-24 to become bowl eligible.

The Terrapins (6-4, 2-4) scored three consecutive touchdowns to open a commanding 21-7 lead, then held on after the Hokies pulled even with 9:32 to play in regulation. In the overtime, the Terps limited Virginia Tech (7-4, 4-3) to a field goal, then needed just four plays to cover the 25 yards, with Brown fittingly finishing it.

He finished with 122 yards on 23 carries and threw for 135 yards.

Trailing 24-21, the Terps made quick work of the overtime.

Brandon Ross ran for 7 yards on first down, and 15 on second down, getting the ball to the Hokies 3. After Ross was stopped for no gain, Brown rolled left and dove for the end zone just inside the pylon.

The Hokies got the ball first in overtime, and got a huge assist from Maryland a pass interference call. That sent them up with first-and-goal at the 9, but three plays lost 5 yards and Eric Kristensen split the uprights from 31 yards for his first career field goal.

Maryland went ahead 21-7 with the opening drive of the second half, and did it quickly.

Brown hit Amba Etta-Tawo for 43 yards to get the ball to the Hokies 16, and Nigel King for the touchdown on the next play. The play to King was originally ruled an incomplete pass or drop, but the officials overturned it after review.

Brown's running ability gave the Terps a 14-7 lead. After he hit Etta-Tawo for 17 yards and a 15-yard roughing the passer against James Gayle was tackled on, Brown scrambled for 16 yards. He spiked the ball to stop the clock, ran 7 yards to get the ball to the Hokies 1 and took it in on the next play.

Maryland drew even in the second quarter when William Likely, who had returned the previous punt 37 yards, fielded a short punt at the 37, cut upfield and went 63 yards for a touchdown.

	Game 11
Boston College	29
Maryland	26
Nov. 23, 2013

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Nate Freese kicked a second-chance, 52-yard field goal as time expired to give Boston College a 29-26 comeback victory over Maryland.

BC's Andre Williams scored two touchdowns and now has 2,073 yards on the ground this year. His 36-yard run in the closing seconds set up Freese's game winner.

Freese was wide left on his first try, but Maryland called a timeout just before the kick. Given a second opportunity, Freese put the ball through the uprights with the wind at his back.

It was the final ACC home game for the Terrapins, who will move to the Big Ten next season.

The Eagles trailed 24-13 before Williams ran 72 yards for a touchdown. Maryland appeared poised for the clinching score but lost a fumble at the Boston College 7. Chase Rettig then threw to Alex Amidon for a 74-yard score to make it 26-24.

But the conversion was blocked, and Maryland's Anthony Nixon took it the distance the other way to tie it with 5:02 left.

Maryland opened the second half with a 70-yard drive capped by a 33-yard touchdown pass from C.J. Brown to Amba Etta-Tawo for a 17-10 lead. The score came two plays after the Terrapins successfully gambled on a fourth-and-1 at the BC 34.

The Eagles closed to 17-13 late in the third quarter when Freese kicked a 19-yard field goal to end a march that lasted nearly seven minutes. The kick came after Boston College failed to get into the end zone on three runs - two by Williams, one by Rettig - from inside the Maryland 3.

The Terrapins went up by 11 on a 3-yard run by Brown with 10:52 to go. The score came after Bryce Jones mishandled a punt at the BC 33.

Late in the first quarter, Rettig was in shotgun formation when a low snap skipped past him. The quarterback chased down the ball and fumbled upon being tackled by Maryland linebacker Marcus Whitfield, who recovered at the BC 1. That set up a touchdown run by Albert Reid for a 10-3 lead.

The Eagles tied it when Williams scored on a 6-yard run after Manuel Aspirilla blocked a punt inside the Maryland 10.

	Game 12
Maryland	41
NC State	21
Nov. 30, 2013

RALEIGH, N.C. - C.J. Brown ran for three touchdowns and threw for two more, and Maryland beat North Carolina State 41-21 in its final Atlantic Coast Conference game.

Brown rushed for a season-high 138 yards with touchdowns of 49, 2 and 3 yards and was 13 of 25 for 259 yards passing with TDs of 53 yards to Nigel King and 27 to Albert Reid.

Maryland (7-5, 3-5) went up 34-7 by scoring on its first six possessions, and held on for its first seven-win season since 2010. The Terrapins are leaving the ACC for the Big Ten next season.

For NC State, Brandon Mitchell ran 3 yards for a TD and finished 21 of 31 for 200 yards with a 3-yard score to Tyler Purvis and a 5-yarder to Rashard Smith.

After taking a 7-0 lead on its opening possession, NC State netted zero total yards on its next five drives while making a series of blunders that Maryland had little trouble turning into points.

Brown became the first Terrapins player to rush for three touchdowns since D.J. Adams in the Military Bowl victory over East Carolina in 2010.

The Terps all but ended this one at halftime by reeling off 34 points in a row. Brad Craddock kicked the first of his two 33-yard field goals before Brown's long TD pass to King.

Brown then ran 49 yards through the heart of NC State's defense to make it 17-7 with 2:42 left in the first quarter.

Then, a snap that sailed over the head of NC State punter Wil Baumann's head for a 21-yard loss gave Maryland a short field at the Wolfpack 14 and set up a Craddock field goal.

Baumann shanked his next punt 24 yards and Brown added his short TD run to make it 27-7 with just under 9 minutes before halftime.

Brown then tackled on his third scoring run to make it 34-7 with 3:23 left in the half.

Game 13 (2013 Military Bowl)

Marshall	31
Maryland	20
Dec. 27, 2013

ANNAPOLIS, Md. - Rakeem Cato threw for 337 yards and three touchdowns, and Marshall used two fourth-quarter scores to rally past Maryland 31-20 in the Military Bowl.

The Thundering Herd (10-4) trailed 20-17 before Cato brought them back. After directing a 63-yard march to put Marshall up 24-20 with 12:05 left, Cato clinched it with an 8-yard touchdown throw to Gator Hoskins with 3:42 to play.

Cato completed 28 of 44 passes - with no interceptions - to help Marshall reach double digits in wins for the first time since 2002.

Maryland (7-6) scored only one touchdown after halftime, taking its three-point lead on a 2-yard scoring pass from C.J. Brown to Dave Stinebaugh.

For the Terps, Brown threw for 197 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 38 yards to become Maryland's single-season rushing leader for quarterbacks with 576 yards, surpassing his mark from 2011 (574).

Running back Brandon Ross rushed for 116 yards on 20 carries eclipsing the 100-yard mark for the second time this season and fourth time in his career. Wide receiver Levern Jacobs had seven catches for 100 yards and a 29-yard touchdown in the first quarter.
